TOP SECRETENCLOSUREPROPOSED AMENDMENT TO C.I.G. DIRECTIVE NO. 9DEVELOPMENT OF INTELLIGENCE ON U.S.S.R.Memorandum by the Director of Central Intelligence

1. At a meeting on 23 July 1947 the Planning and Working Committees established to develop intelligence on the U.S.S.R. unanimously approved the recommendation that paragraph 6 a of C.I.G. Directive No. 9 be amended to provide classification by sections and chapters of the Strategic Intelligence Digest since it was considered the classification of TOP SECRET was no longer required in all cases.

2. Accordingly, it is recommended that paragraph 6 a of C.I.G. Directive No. 9, dated 9 May 1946, which now reads:

"6 a. The classification of this project shall be TOP SECRET. The greatest care will be taken to maintain the security of the existence of the operation."

be amended to read:

"6 a. The classification of the various sections and chapters of the Strategic Intelligence Digest will be established individually by the Working Committee in accordance with the intelligence materials contained therein and as required by existing Security Regulations. The greatest care will be taken to maintain the security of the existence of the operation."

29 April 1946CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE GROUPDEVELOPMENT OF INTELLIGENCE ON U.S.S.R.Memorandum by the Director of Central Intelligence

1. By informal arrangement under the coordination of the C.I.G., M.I.S. has sponsored the organization of a Planning Committee, with representation of the C.I.G., State Department, M.I.S., O.N.I., and A-2, to formulate a plan to utilize the facilities of all interested Government agencies for the production of the highest possible quality of intelligence on the U.S.S.R. in the shortest possible time. It was agreed that C.I.G. would take over formal sponsorship of the project at the earliest possible moment, but that meanwhile active work on it would be started.

2. The Planning Committee has drawn up a plan for Development of Intelligence on the U.S.S.R. which has been approved informally by each of you. The plan provides that after such approval, formal action will be arranged for as deemed advisable by C.I.G.

3. Paragraph 3 of N.I.A. Directive No. 1 provides a procedure by which the necessary formal directive can be published and carried out by unanimous approval of the Director of Central Intelligence and the Intelligence Advisory Board, without action by the National Intelligence Authority.

4. A draft of a formal directive is enclosed. If all members of the Intelligence Advisory Board concur in the draft without substantial change, a meeting will not be necessary. It is recommended that the draft be approved and that each member of the Intelligence Advisory Board arrange for any additional implementation required by his Department.

PROPOSED C.I.G. DIRECTIVE

DEVELOPMENT OF INTELLIGENCE ON U.S.S.R.

Memorandum by the Director of Central Intelligence,
With the Unanimous Concurrence of the Intelligence Advisory Board

1. There is an urgent need to develop the highest possible quality of intelligence on the U.S.S.R. in the shortest possible time. By informal agreement, a Planning Committee, composed of a coordinator from the Central Intelligence Group (C.I.G.) and representatives from the State Department, Military Intelligence Division (G-2), Office of Naval Intelligence (O.N.I.) and the Office of the Assistant Chief of Air Staff-2 (A-2), has been formed and has drawn up a plan to coordinate and improve the production of intelligence on the U.S.S.R. This plan has been approved informally by all members of the Intelligence Advisory Board and is now in operation.

2. The purpose of this Directive is to formalize the temporary agreement and establish it as a project under the coordination of the Director of Central Intelligence. The mission of the project is to develop and pool the appropriate resources of all agencies of the United States Government in order to insure the production of the highest possible quality of intelligence on the U.S.S.R. and its peripheral areas in the minimum time.

3. A Planning Committee is established to devise ways and means for carrying out the mission. This Committee will consist of a coordinator, furnished by the Director of Central Intelligence, and of one representative each of the Special Assistant to the Secretary of State in Charge of Research and Intelligence;

the Assistant Chief of Staff, G-2, W.D.G.S.; the Chief of Naval Intelligence; and the Assistant Chief of Air Staff-2. The coordinator will act in a supervisory capacity. The Planning Committee will select a chairman and a secretary from among its representatives. The chairman of the Committee will consult the coordinator whenever necessary to secure assistance of the Central Intelligence Group on problems confronting the Committee. When appropriate, the coordinator will meet with the Committee. In case of disagreement within the Planning Committee, the matter will be submitted by the coordinator to the Director of Central Intelligence for decision.

4. a. A Working Committee is established to carry out the policies and plans prepared by the Planning Committee. It will be composed of the necessary personnel from the State Department, G-2, O.N.I. and A-2. The secretary of the Planning Committee will be the chairman of the Working Committee and will supervise the staff of the Working Committee. The chairman of the Committee will consult the C.I.G. coordinator on the Planning Committee whenever necessary to secure assistance of the Central Intelligence Group on problems confronting the Committee. When appropriate, the C.I.G. coordinator will meet with the Committee.

b. The Working Committee will establish and coordinate a system to compile a digest of all types of factual strategic intelligence on the U.S.S.R. This digest shall be known as Strategic Intelligence Digest (S.I.D.). Facilities of the member agencies will be utilized to the maximum extent. The Committee will establish its own methods of operation.

c. Copies of S.I.D. will be distributed to member agencies and the C.I.G. only. Strategic Intelligence Estimates (S.I.E.), based on the S.I.D., will be prepared by member agencies individually as required to meet their own needs and also whenever requested by the Director of Central Intelligence. All estimates prepared by member agencies will be furnished the C.I.G. Whenever the national interest requires it, estimates will be prepared by the C.I.G.

d. The Assistant Chief of Staff, G-2, W.D.G.S., will provide office space and other necessary facilities for the Working Committee in the Pentagon Building.

5. Each member of the Intelligence Advisory Board will furnish the name of his representative on the Planning Committee to the Director of Central Intelligence. These representatives will be responsible for furnishing the lists of personnel authorized to work in or help the Working Committee.

6. a. The classification of this project shall be TOP SECRET. The greatest care will be taken to maintain the security of the existence of the operation.

b. Access to Government agencies other than those participating in the project will be arranged by C.I.G. Representation on the Working Committee from additional Government agencies will be approved first by the Planning Committee.
